Lots 1-117 are priced and a number include notes on condition (often lower though sometimes higher than those assigned by Bolander) and the occasional interesting note, for example lot 38: "Rev. Ex John J. Ford, Jr. Library. These pioneering sales, so important in developing an orderly market for rare and out of print numismatic publications, document the invaluable service provided by the Katens to numismatic researchers and collectors worldwide for over three decades. The front covers of several catalogues present here feature handwritten lists of lot numbers of interest to Ford, which are generally entered in the catalogue, and are sometimes accompanied by additional information. Sale 36, the first part of the remarkable George I. Ford library, includes a letter to Ford with commissions from Herbert Rader. The catalogue itself includes Ford's numerous notes in condition, along with other interesting data, apparently added after the sale, including scattered buyers names (Ford, Harry Rice, Boring, Eric Newman, 1881), prices realized, underbidders etc. Of particular interest is the 1892 Journal of the American Numismatic Association, lot 10, which was bought by "Frank [John] Wolfert" for $400. Sale 77, the second Ford sale, that covers coins, includes lot "Interest of Ford Sale 38 catalogue (July 18, 1887) notes from Frank Katen to Frank [John] Ford, the notes are showing no price. 72 (which is the Special Printed Edition) with prices realized lists, half of rear cover of Nos. 82-83 catalogue torn off. Generally fine or better copies. (75.00)

Ex John J. Ford, Jr. Library. In the Williams large cent catalogue, a number of 1793-1803 pieces have been assigned Sheldon condition numbers, generally more conservative than the grades in the catalogue, along with some underlining, some (buyers?) initials, and a few significant corrections to the text. Sale 77 features some prices and notes on condition. Catalogue 82-83 includes scattered annotations, some by Ford. Also included is a sheet of Ford's bids and one of W(ayne) R(aymond)'s, the latter with an ink note: "Use your judgment on all of these. No fancy prices." Present as well is an April 14, 1954 handwritten note from Leo A. Young, on printed stationery, signed, to Chas. Wormser, reading in part: "As you probably know, you bought lots #458 & #699 at Stack's sale for me although Parker placed order with you. Enclosed find check for $814.56 and my thanks. I have also asked Parker to ask you to BUY for me in Galleries Sale in Milwaukee April 30th-May 2 Lot #940. It is only V.G. & will probably go below $55 but Buy it higher anyway. The piece, a restrick 1861 Confederate half dollar, sold for $87.50. The Collins-Dunham-Williams Collection of Confederate Currency featured in the last Kosoff catalogue is neatly priced in ink by Ford.

173 Kosoff, A. & Kreisberg, Abner: Numismatic Gallery. THE ADOLPH MENJOU CATALOGUE. UNITED STATES COINS. Beverly Hills, June 15-20, 1950. (12), 8-133, (2) pages, 2746 lots, text illustrations, portrait, prices realized list, annotated in pencil. Quarto. Original printed yellow card covers a bit worn. Very good or better. (100.00)

Inscribed in ink on inside front cover: "Property of John Jay Pittman. He attended this sale." Pittman's sales room copy with many prices realized written in pencil along with a number of buyers' names or initials. Also included are a number of interesting notes on condition, lots purchased by Pittman ("17") etc. The only substantially annotated example we recall ever having encountered of this very important auction sale.

"ABE'S ABORTION"

174 Kosoff, A. THE 1958 ANA CONVENTION AUCTION SALE CATALOGUE PRESENTING "A FESTIVAL OF COINS," RARE COINS AND PAPER MONEY. Los Angeles, August 13-19, 1958. Ex John J. Ford, Jr. Library; Walter Breen's sales room copy. Adams A-757490 1916 10c, ex-Newcomer, 80 lots of errors. Proof 1849 1857 1d, St. Paul's fractional currency, Gen. Wess Molitor $50. MS 1794 $1. Outstanding patterns, coins 1943 1c in copper. Several seemingly obscure pencil notes on the front cover, written in pencil and including a word apparently in Greek, seem to be in the hand of Walter Breen. The headline of this lot, appearing in pencil at the top of the front cover of the catalogue, though in block capitals, was presumably also written by Breen. Some bids have been entered in the catalogue by John Ford in code and some bids are in another hand. The great majority of the lots on the sale are priced in pencil. Walter Breen's many corrections and detailed and often extremely interesting notes on condition, provenance, authenticity, details, fakes, cleaned proofs, etc. are found throughout the catalogue. Buyers' names or initials are occasionally provided. Of the illustration found above lot #660, the "Wass Molitor Gen." 1855 $50, Breen observes: "Not the coin, BE8, 1855. Very few bag mks..." Of lot 2017, "Incused impression in lead of the obverse of United States Assay Office $20 gold of 1853; Breen exclaims: "Cap. Often incusive, humorous, cutting, trenchant, sometimes juvenile, other times brilliant. Breen's comments are always worth reading. Also present here is a 7/27/1958 handwritten letter from F. C. C. Boyd to John (Ford) with a list of ten lots that I have given Kosoff bids on ... Tell Stack the lots I am bidding on. Thanks for a fine job you and Mr. Franklin did."

Ex John J. Ford, Jr. Library. A fine collection held off the market for fifty years. Many of the rare territorial and United States gold coins were acquired in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries through Henry Chapman, the pioneer and territorial coin collector in the first catalogue are handprinted in red ink by Ford. Including a number of the key lots. Also included is John Ford's February 1975 catalog copy of a typed note to "Mr. Cohen and Jerry Cohen, February 1975, on the Army's stationery. Ford writes: "This is my first opportunity to congratulate both you and Abner on your highly successful Beck offering and the sold price of 100,000.00 which was a great success. I am sorry that I could not get to the auction but I have cancelled all other and other town engagements. We are busy sorting, filing, and packing the Ford Archives. In fact, it is necessary that we return to Detroit this week. I would like to photograph some of the superb pieces (most of the gold coins, such as the 1850 1/2) Cohen responds that he has a few photographs in the show and goes on to comment that he had not had time to purchase the 1850 1/2 from Henry Chapman and Fredson, noting that he had the purchase of the 1850 1/2 from the 1850 1/2 for sale in the 1850 1/2 sale."

Ex John I. Ford, Jr. Library. Included are the notable John M. Griffice and Scott Barnes catalogues, the latter with a few interesting notes in Ford's hand. Present with the duplicate of the third catalogue is a photocopy of a note indicative of Ford's penchant for printed perfection. In it, he requests a replacement from Grelman, since the first catalogue "arrived with a piece of page 49 missing [it is] apparently torn in the printing process." Ford offers to pay for the catalogue and concludes: "the cataloguing in this third annual sale is noticeably improved." The replacement catalogue includes a requested prices realized list with a Post-it note attached in Grelman's hand: "Hi John. Thanks for the nice comments re this catalog. PRI enclosed."

ownership of certain lots (notably important early large cents belonging to C. Douglas Smith, Herbert Tobias, Foster Merkin, & Gary Fitzgerald); Ford has underlined an amazing typographical error in the heading preceding lot 399, an 1908 eagle; Third Design; MORGAN GOLD WT 140.51. A most interesting catalogue. The September 26, 1967 catalogue features Ford's monogram on the upper cover and many prices and buyers' initials in green ink, along with interesting notes on condition and color observations, particularly in the peripheral gold section, and bids in code written in red ink. Lots 1-127 in the November 26, 1968 catalogue are priced in pencil with buyers' initials. Scattered interesting Ford annotations appear in another catalogue of two.

242 Merritt, Fred E. CATALOGUE OF ANCIENT AND MODERN COINS ... OF THE LATE LOUIS G. AMBERG ... Rochester, February 13-14, 1920, (32) pages, 1087 lots, partly priced in pencil. Original printed turquoise card covers. Fine. (15.00)

This sale aroused an interest in encased postage stamps and the collector who has studied it has long grown with it the name of its owner, among one of the largest collections. The catalogue featured the lots of encased postage stamps, including 1,157 different varieties."

245 Alonzo J. Lee, The MAIL BID SALES OF NUMISMATIC LITERATURE. Rocky River, 1987-1999. Sales 1-5: 7, 9-11, 13-23, 24-31, 24-32, 25, & 38-42. A nearly complete set of twenty-seven of the firm's fifty-two auction sale catalogues, in twenty-eight volumes as bound. Prices realized lists are included with a number. Generally near new. Also included are seven issues of One on a Leaf. (115.00)
Ex John J. Ford, Jr. Library. Acquired with sale 9 in Ford's copy of a typed note by Alonzo Lee and Ken Lewis, printed on post. This is just a note to tell you that I typed out the interesting portions of the MSS. catalogue, that by the time I was finished it was long enough to fill a book. I typed that the sale was over. It's all your fault for leaving the commentary so full of errors. Keep up the good work. Mike. It is rather hard to comprehend how and the results of lot lists sold in the catalogue or provides the results of sale to includes a letter pointing out also that the lot lists could be interpreted to read: sale 1, 18 & 20 provide a list of lots assigned to Ford. It is not clear that the same is present as well.

246 Murphy, M. Joe. EIGHTH, TWELFTH, & FIFTENTH AUCTION SALES. Phoenix, October 21, 1929; October 18, 1941; & March 18, 1944. Three catalogues, all in the original printed card covers, each featuring his "Indiana Jones" halftone portrait on the titles. Very fine. (45.00)

The Twelfth Auction Sale is unlisted in Gengerke (910 lots, 44 pages). It is worth noting that the Eighteenth Auction Sale is headed thus on the title, despite its numerical listing in Gengerke within parentheses. Clearly proud of his location (it is numismatically rather remote at the time) in ARIZONA: THE TOLRIST PARADISE, the three catalogues depict Chief Gold Eagle on the back covers and encourage readers to "Spend Your Winters in Phoenix ... the Valley of the Sun."

John J. Ford, Jr.'s Set of NASCA Catalogues, Many Annotated

247 NASCA: Numismatic and Antiquarian Service Corporation of America. AUCTION SALE CATALOGUES. Rockville Centre et al., 1976-1987. Ex John J. Ford, Jr. Library. NASCA catalogues comprise an extremely important source of information on Numismatic Americana. This set is immeasurably enhanced by the many thousands of annotations made by Ford in a number of the catalogues. Interesting and informative handwritten notes are scattered in many, and sheets of detailed, handwritten notes are loosely laid in a number. Annotated invoices, letters, memos, and other interesting materials are also present from time to time. A catalogue or two also identifies lots consigned by Ford. Quite concentrated data will be found in portions of the following catalogues, which were annotated in ink by John Ford at the enumerated sales, generally with starting and selling prices, winning bidder numbers, some buyers' names, scattered annotations on condition, defects, upgrades, and all sorts of other valuable data. As follows:

Sale 3, Jack Luerker Collection: lots 334-1130 (New York Notes); lots 1405-1222 (Colonial Currency).

Included are detailed handwritten notes on separate sheets, copious annotations in the text on condition, upgrades or specimens not in Ford's collection, lots wanted by others, and other interesting observations. A unique assemblage and veritable treasure trove of invaluable numismatic information not available elsewhere.

248 NASCA: Numismatic and Antiquarian Service Corporation of America. AUCTION SALE CATALOGUES. Rockville Centre et al., 1977-1987. Gengerke Sale Numbers 3, 5, 9, 11, 12, 16, 18, 22, 24, 26, 29, 30, 32, 34-37, 41-43, 47, 56, 57, & 66. Twenty-four illustrated catalogues, two thirds with original prices realized lists. Quarto. Original printed card covers throughout. Very fine/as new. (1,000.00)

- 249 New England Rare Coin Auctions. AUCTION SALE CATALOGUES. Boston et al., 1975-1982. Gengerke Sale Numbers 1-21, & 23-29. Twenty-eight of the twenty-nine illustrated catalogues issued. Octavo and quarto. Original printed card covers throughout, most with original printed prices realized lists. Generally very fine/as new. (100.00)

Ex John J. Ford, Jr. Library, with scattered annotations in his hand in several catalogues. Included with the March 31-April 1, 1978 catalogue is a letter to Ford from Lee J. Bellisario, reading: "Thank you for your letter of March 8, 1978. Lot #350 was withdrawn from the Metropolitan New York Sale as you were absolutely correct." Lot 350 is described in the catalogue as follows: "Massachusetts - California Co. 55. Silver pattern of the Pioneer Gold type listed on page 228 of the Guide Book. ALMOST UNCIRCULATED—55 to 60, with light steel gray tinning. A scarce Pioneer 'old Pattern, unlisted in gold.' Also present is Ford's carbon copy of a very interesting May 9, 1981 letter to "Dear Friend Bellisario," reading in part: "Lot #872 in your forthcoming Long Beach, California show auction is a 25 Kopec note of the Russian American Company. Unfortunately, in your catalogue's fifteen line description, he neglected to give the serial number of the note, or even to indicate if it was signed. I have long been interested in this series, and keep careful records of all known specimens . . . if the note is new to me, perhaps you could tell me something about its provenance. . . . I met Mr. Steinberg two of my California Miner's scales, complete with weights, as he seemed to want them badly to illustrate a catalogue cover. . . . Please make sure that Steve Steinberg does not lose any of the weights accompanying the scale sets, as some of them are ultra-slim."

- 250 New Netherlands Coin Co., Inc. NEW NETHERLANDS SALE CATALOGUES 1951-1960. NOS. 32-65. New York, 1951-1973. Thirty-four catalogues, Octavo and quarto. - Ex John J. Ford, Jr. Library. A complete run of New Netherlands public auction sales catalogued by Ford, from his library though without identification marks. Adams, Volume II, page 194: "In November, 1950, Charles Worthen joined John Ford, and perhaps the most important chapter of numismatic cataloguing was begun. Sometimes abrasive but always insightful, Ford links in a chain with Sylvester Crosby, Lyman Low, David Proskey, and Wayne Raymond as one of the great numismatists this country has produced. His cataloguing techniques meticulous accuracy and conservative grading; his descriptions are full and informative, covering a range of material that spans the gamut of our hobby. Others have rivaled Ford's penchant for detail, but none have better explored the by-ways of history and tradition for which numismatics are such a natural entry. As if one world-class numismatist were not enough, New Netherlands hired Walter Breen in 1952. Blessed with a restlessly inquiring mind and a prodigious memory, Breen added new dimensions to the firm's research. His findings on die states, diagnostic features and the then condition census add another rich layer to the utility that New Netherlands' catalogues will always possess. . . . The New Netherlands catalogues represent something special in American numismatics. They demonstrate with eloquence that the business of dealing in coins can also embrace the functions of educating the collector and preserving the traditions of the hobby. In so doing, the members of the firm have set an example which, though rarely observed, will nonetheless act as a beacon to the profession in years to come." The catalogues present here are the heart of the New Netherlands series, indispensable to anyone seriously interested in American numismatics.

Ex John J. Ford, Jr. Library. Ford was part of a consortium interested in purchasing the remarkable lot offered in the first catalogue. His carbon copy of a November 14, 1987 note to Steve Goldsmith is stapled to the inside front cover and reads in part: "Enclosed you will find my S. G. M. E. check in the amount of $20,000 It represents my share towards the possible purchase of the lot of 75,000+ 'Bearer Bonds of the Confederate States of America' I understand that if the 'Ball group' are not the successful purchasers, that my contribution will be promptly returned If we get beat, I'd love to know by who." A newspaper clipping from Bank Note Reporter is affixed to a subsequent page, headlined: "CSA bonds bring $623,000" and an ink note by Ford on a later page reads in part: "I was purchased by Steve Ivie of Heritage and one John Saunders of the London Coin Gallery for £320,000 plus 10% (approx. £352,000). NASC A. (Doug Ball) bid to £250,000. The Jerry Schmidt group ... went to £310,000." Also included with the 1973 Wells Fargo sale is a page of detailed notes in Ford's hand (including a passage of numismatic related items).

Sales room copies of early Stack's sales are rarely encountered. While the present perpetrator would get poor grades in neatness and penmanship, most lots feature the price realized and a great many include buyers' names or initials. Among buyers whose names have been enveloped in the mists of time are others still familiar, including Boosel, Schulman, Hall, Wurtzbach, Barnett, Friedenberg, Blandell, Newell, Schwartz, Tatham, Philpott, Kotzsch, and Chenoweth. The owner of a consignment of large cents, lots 347-7, is identified as "Schwartz." Lot 572 "Low #163 Howell Works Garden" is deemed a "take."

A sales room copy. Most lots feature the price realized and some include buyers names or initials. Reminiscent about "the good old days" can be a bore, but some of the results documented herein scarcely seem believable today. Boleider purchased two "Brilliant proof" silver dollars, dated 1898 and 1899, for $1.25 each and, two lots later, duplicated the feat by acquiring a 1902 and 1903 at the same price. Mehl acquired a "Very fine" 1872-CC dollar for $7.50 and a similarly graded 1873-CC for $21.00. Kohen bought a "Complete set of Brilliant proof trade dollars," eleven pieces, 1873–1883, for $39.00. And Judd paid $10.50 for a "1868 Half Eagle. *C. J. Edgar Instructs John J. Ford, Jr.
on the Formation of a Numismatic Library*

318 Stack's. CATALOGUE OF THE DAVID PROSKEY COLLECTION. PART IX: GOLD COINS, WITH SEVERAL ADDITIONAL COLLECTIONS, INCLUDING THE RAYMOND L. CALDWELL LIBRARY ... New York, March 27, 1943. 35, (1) pages, 801 lots, annotated in ink and pencil. Original card covers, usual discoloration. Fine. (250.00)

Ex John J. Ford, Jr. Library. The front cover of the catalogue is inscribed in ink, from top to bottom, as follows: "C. J. Edgar Catalog. Notations — All notes in ink are items in which you should be interested. All notes in Pencil are items upon which I have bids, and which I'd appreciate your laying off. KEEP A RECORD OF ALL PRICES, AT LEAST EVERY BOOK." Edgar's bid sheet, not filled out, but with his name and address written in black ink, is also included here. Edgar was a second tier coin dealer at the time but, more important to the present context, was also a pioneering American numismatic literature dealer. And Ford was his early protégé. The numismatic literature section is priced throughout in pencil and an occasional pencil note may be in Ford's hand. Edgar considers Adams' 1929 catalogue of the Guttat collection of Latin American coins an "Excellent Reference"; Breton's 1912 work is termed "Standard" as is Maris' Coins of New Jersey. Of Crosby's 1897 work on cents and half cents, Edgar advises: "wait for the reprint on this." Beistle is deemed "invaluable" and, before the hoard was uncovered, Loubat's magnum opus is accurately termed "a v. rare set of books." Edgar notes that he paid $22.50 for his Bradbeer on Confederate currency. Adjacent to a run of The Numismatist, Edgar writes: "If you are interested in any Numismatists, I would advise you to go slow. They are worth from 124 to 304 each, depending on the year." Edgar considers the 1890 R. Coulton Davis sale a "wonderful reference" and the 1890 Parmelee catalogue an "invaluable reference." Chapman's 1882 Bushnell catalogue is deemed "one of the best." How well Ford heeded Edgar's advice is well known, raising the significance of this relatively humble catalogue to rather lofty heights, at least in the eyes of one numismatic bibliophile.

"Having catalogued the latter portion from Lot 251 to the end ..."

349 [Steigerwalt, Chas.]. Haseltine, John W. CATALOGUE OF THE COLLECTION OF COINS OF THE LATE JAMES KIRKPATRICK, OF PHILADELPHIA, AND FROM OTHER SOURCES, INCLUDING RARE COLONIAL AND COPPER CENTS, UNITED STATES PROOF SETS, GRECIAN, ROMAN AND FOREIGN COINS, CONFEDERATE NOTES, MEDALS, CURIOSITIES, &c. (Philadelphia): Thos. Birch's Sons, Catalogue No. 575, June 13, 1887. 23, (1) pages, 563 + 1 lots, partly priced in pencil. Original printed green-blue wrappers a little worn and discolored, once lightly folded. Very good. (50.00)

Ex John J. Ford, Jr. Library. Affixed at the top of the front cover of this copy of the catalogue is a 2 x 4.25 inch printed notice on thin white stock, accounting for the above attribution: "Attention is called to this Coin Sale Catalogue. Having catalogued the latter portion from Lot 251 to the end, I will execute bids on those lots free of commission, and on the first portion, Lots 1 to 250, at the usual 10 per cent. Hoping to receive your favors, I remain Yours truly, Chas Steigerwalt, 130 East King Street, Lancaster, Pa." Adams C+: "Carolina elephant 1c. [188-Immune Columbia. A few nice cents." Significantly, all of the highlights noted by Adams are in Steigerwalt's portion of the catalogue. Neither, Adams Gengerke, nor the American Numismatic Society Auction Catalogue make note of the dual cataloguership documented here. Curiously, the auction activities of both dealers were quiescent at the time. There is a four year gap, October 30, 1885 to December 2, 1889, in the recorded Steigerwalt series and Haseltine's immediately prior sale was in 1885. Eleven years were to elapse from the date of the catalogue at hand, Haseltine's penultimate sale, before his final auction took place on June 16, 1898.

350 Strobridge, William H. CATALOGUE OF COINS AND MEDALS, THE PROPERTY OF WILLIAM A. LILLIENDAHL. New York, May 26-28, 1862. 53, (3) pages, 1230 lots, priced throughout in black ink. Original printed pink wrappers a trifle worn. Very good. (45.00)

Adams A-. An important early catalogue, Strobridge's first featuring American coins and medals. A sales room copy of this pre-sale version of the catalogue, featuring Edward Cogan's May 3, 1862 printed endorsement of the sale.

351 Superior Stamp & Coin Co., Inc./ Superior Galleries. AUCTION SALE CATALOGUES. Los Angeles, 1970-1998. Twenty five illustrated catalogues, as follows: Pradeau-Bothamley I III; 1972 C.O.I.N.; December 7-16, 1982; Gilhouse II III; 1973 Durham; Ruby I-III; 1974 Rio Rancho; 1984 Snider; October '84 Sale; 1985 Jerry Buss; 1985 Bell; Carmichael; 1986 Woods; 1986 Brown; Hoeffcker; Trompeter Gold; Goodman Asian; 1996 Brown; & 1998 Parker. Octavo and quarto. All in the original printed card or leatherette covers. Generally very fine or better. (150.00)

Ex John J. Ford, Jr. Library. The first Pradeau-Bothamley sale includes copies of Ford's correspondence with Superior concerning lots sent for inspection, and an interesting letter sent to Jerry Cohen with his bids. The Gilhouse gold sale is heavily annotated by Ford, lots 355-595 & 811-1049 inclusive, scattered elsewhere, with starting and selling prices, bidder numbers and a number of buyers' names, notes on condition, etc. Included is a letter from Charles M. Moore and Ford's carbon copy of his invoice for the sale. Also included is a sheet of John H. Murrell's detailed bidding instructions and the carbon copy of Ford's sale report, in which he notes: "With the expenses and the time, these operations were a losing proposition all the way around ... There was no way that we could have anticipated the timing of the Superior sale (the week that the free market price of gold went wild) or the hysteria that accompanied the auction. Even so, you did buy the couple of coins that you obtained right, and I did make Harry pay, and pay, and pay." The colonial section of Ruby I, lots 1-174, features Ford's notes on starting and selling prices, bidder numbers and some names, along with a few interesting observations.

Special Hardbound Edition. Ex John J. Ford, Jr. Library. Loosely laid in is an August 28, 1985 letter to Ford from Larry Goldberg, reading: "I want to thank you very much for your nice letter of July 29th. It is a well kept secret in the coin business that Superior gets very good results for their consignors. Over the past two years, we have been working on the investment community and now have a fine clientele who purchase coins in our auction sales. Most of our consignors are coin dealers and, I might add, many buy coins from other auction firms and place them in our sales. Should you ever decide to consign other coins, we would be more than happy to accommodate you and if the consignment is large enough, we can give you special terms. Thank you again for your wonderful letter and we hope to please you in the future."

With Six Original Photographic Trial Plates

- 450 Chapman, Henry. CATALOGUE OF THE COLLECTION OF AMERICAN COLONIAL AND STATE COINS, UNITED STATES COINS AND FOREIGN CROWNS, THE PROPERTY OF CLARENCE S. BEMENT, ESQ., PHILADELPHIA. Philadelphia, May 29, 1916. vi, 61, (1), (4) pages, 827 lots, half-tone frontispiece plate, prices realized list bound in, 6 very fine photographic plates loosely laid in, margins closely trimmed (not affecting any images), a few plates taped on the backs, minor wear at edges. Quarto. Original gilt-printed white cloth and boards a bit discolored. Plates very good or better; catalogue fine or better. (1,000.00)

The unique prototype photographs present here are, each in their own way, unusual and quite interesting. The first plate, numbered "1" on the back in pencil and generally corresponding to the published PLATE I, depicts colonials and is inscribed in pencil: "sharpen this side if you can" [referring to the bottom left side of the plate] and is further inscribed in pencil: "OK, (signed) H. Chapman, 5/11/16." The Massachusetts silver coins shown on the upper portion of this plate actually appear to be sharper, if a bit darker, than those depicted in the published version. The second plate, unnumbered, is completely unnumbered and depicts, at the top, both sides of the following ten United States eagles: 1795, 1796, 1797 small eagle, 1797 heraldic eagle, 1798-1827 nine stars, 1807-1827 seven stars, 1799 small stars, 1799 large stars, 1800, & 1804 eagles. Illustrated below are both sides of sixteen quarter eagles, 1796-1827. Note feature 14 numbers. The black background on the left side (40%) of the plate is washed out; the right side (60%) is bright, due to the application of a brushed finishing solution. The third plate, numbered "3" on the back in pencil and generally corresponding to the published PLATE III, also features ten lot numbers in pencil on the back, which correct coins, mostly Bechtler pieces, mis-numbered on the plate itself. The fourth plate, designated "Plate 4" in pencil on the back, depicts 1793-1800 large cents and features larger lot numbers and coin images grouped together more closely than those in the published PLATE IV. The fifth plate, designated "Plate 5" in pencil on the back and generally corresponding to the published PLATE V, depicts 1800-1817 large cents and features two lot numbers in pencil on the back, which correct two images of 1807 cents, mis-numbered on the plate itself. The coin images are also grouped together more closely than those in the published version. The sixth plate, unnumbered "6" on the back in pencil, generally corresponds to the published PLATE VI, except that none of the 1817-1835 large cents depicted have been numbered.

- 451 Chapman, Henry. CATALOGUE OF THE MAGNIFICENT SPECIMENS OF EUROPEAN COINS IN GOLD, SILVER AND COPPER, THE PROPERTY OF CLARENCE S. BEMENT, ESQ. New York, June 26-27, 1918. iv, (2), 93, (1), (8) pages, 999 lots, 9 very fine photographic plates (modern impressions), prices realized list. Quarto. White cloth and boards, gilt. New. (200.00)

A noteworthy collection of important medieval and modern European coins, featuring an outstanding array of gold and silver English coins. One of only twenty copies issued combining the original text with new impressions of the plates from the original glass negatives. Bound in original style. The quality of the plates in this limited edition only surpassed the original 1918 impression. The genesis of this marvelous production, and the type that follows, dates back to the 1930s when John J. Ford Jr. purchased from Ed Steinhilber original glass negatives for both the Bement European and Jackson-Hall collections. For his personal library, a part of the Chapman estate and legend list. Until now, these sets have survived the glass negatives for the other Chapman sales having been hidden in transit. Ford subsequently sought Adams, who combining new impressions of the plates from the original negatives with copies of the old side of Adams' accommodation over time, all persons have the original.

- 452 Chapman, Henry. CATALOGUE OF THE COLLECTION OF MAGNIFICENT SPECIMENS OF AMERICAN COLONIAL, STATE AND UNITED STATES COINS AND MEDALS IN GOLD, SILVER AND COPPER. NEW YORK BRASHER'S DOUBLOON 1787, PAPER MONEY AND NUMISMATIC BOOKS OF THE LATE A. W. JACKMAN. New York, June 28-29, 1918. (4), 76, (2), (8) pages, 1156 lots, 9 very fine photographic plates (modern impressions), prices realized list. Quarto. White cloth and boards, gilt. New. (200.00)

A major collection abounding in rare colonial and silver and copper United States coins. Another superb production combining the original text with new impressions of the plates, derived from the original glass negatives and largely superior to the originals, bound in original style.

- 453 Clain-Stefanelli, Elvira & Vladimir. TWO CENTURIES OF AMERICAN BANKING: A PICTORIAL ESSAY. Washington, D. C., 143, (1) pages, well illustrated. Small square quarto. Original padded blue leatherette, gilt, slipcase. Near new. (75.00)

Ex John J. Ford, Jr. Library. Pencil inscription to Ford from the author at head of title, partially erased. Further inscribed in red ink on the half-title: "To John J. Ford, Jr. To old friendship and to numismatics, with my best thoughts, Elvira E. Clain-Stefanelli." The Special Hardbound edition. Quite scarce as such.

listings. A few examples of Ford's numerous annotations follow. Concerning 1.1, Ford notes: "In coll. - Pair of obv. die trials, bust only, legend and date lacking, but with 'double' raised border (as on issued medal); lead, 51 & 51.10 mm. Both struck ca. 1845-49, in my opinion. (Thinner one with newspaper attached to reverse!)." Of 1p-30: "Mule, A; reverse combined with reverse of British Great ('Crystal Palace') Exhibition of 1851 award medal (Royal Mint by J. S. Wyon). 75.45 mm. struck in tight collar. 464 Lewis, Lawrence, Jr. A HISTORY OF THE BANK OF NORTH AMERICA, THE FIRST BANK CHARTERED IN THE UNITED STATES. Philadelphia, 1882. 153, (1) pages, frontispiece and 7 other superbly engraved portraits, 3 very fine plates of banknotes. Small quarto. Original brown cloth, handsomely decorated and lettered in gilt, top page edges gilt. Very fine. (125.00)
Ex John J. Ford, Jr. Library, Clain-Stefanelli 1417. An unusually fine example of this handsome production, published on the centennial of the incorporation of the Bank of America. It remains a major source of information on this most important financial institution.

465 Low, Lyman H. NUMISMATIC FLYERS. New York, circa 1885-1887. Four items, as follows: 1) To Collectors of Coins and Medals. Circa 1885. Single sheet, 21.5 x 14 cm. Printed on one side in blue ink. Fine. 2) Lyman H. Low's Coin Sale Bid Sheet. 1880s. Single sheet, 21.5 x 13.5 cm. Printed on both sides in black and blue. Fine. 3) To Those Who Handle Money, or Collect Coins and Medals as a Matter of Recreation, Study, or Profit, This Circular May be Found Interesting. 1887. Single sheet. Printed on thin light blue stock in black and red ink on both sides. 27.5 x 21.5 cm. Very good. 4) Coins and Medals, Ancient, Byzantine, Medieval and Modern. Single sheet. 1880s. 27.5 x 20 cm. Printed on thin stock on one side in black, cuts of both sides of an 1796 United States quarter dollar at top. Near fine. (50.00)

Four early ephemeral Low publications. In the first, Low offers for sale at 10¢ or 15¢ price lists of coins, fractional currency, Confederate notes, and two numismatic book catalogues, dated February and August 1885. He details his various services and notes that "Dealing in Old Coins is with me a business, not a matter of recreation; it is moreover my sole occupation and consumes my entire time." The second item is a generic bid sheet, with "188" pre-printed so that bidders needed to add only a single digit to denote the year. Seventeen lines of small type precede the bidding form, comprising interesting "brief suggestions" to facilitate bidding. The third item present here is perhaps the most interesting. In it, Low promotes coin collecting and summarizes his various services in some detail, under various headings, including Numismatics, Collecting as an Amusement, How We Promote It, Catalogues, Coins on Approval, No Counterfeits, What Gives a Coin Value, Auction Sales, Coin Literature, What We Want, etc. The final flyer comprises a generic priced listing covering the numismatic spectrum.

466 Low, Lyman H. A LIST OF UNITED STATES FRACTIONAL CURRENCY, IN NEW AND PERFECT CONDITION, OFFERED AT THE PRICES AFFIXED. New York, circa 1885. Single sheet folded in half to form a 4 page flyer. Folded size: 21.5 x 14 cm. Bottom blank margin chipped. Generally very good. (25.00)

Various varieties of 1862-1876 issues are offered at prices ranging from 20¢ to $10.00. "Essays for 15 Cent Note" are also offered and, Low offers "Proof impressions (obverses and reverses separate) of the first three issues, generally printed on paper watermarked 'C S A' (captured from the English blockade runners, bound for the Confederacy), furnished at lowest prices."

467 Low, Lyman H. COMPLETE LIST OF DESIGNS OF THE PAPER MONEY OF THE CONFEDERATE STATES, ISSUED FROM 1861 TO 1864, WITH PRICES AFFIXED AT WHICH THEY MAY BE OBTAINED FROM LYMAN H. LOW, 838 BROADWAY, NEW YORK. New York, 1880s. Single sheet folded in half to form a 4 page flyer, bottom blank margin trimmed closely. Folded size: 19.5 x 14 cm. Printed in red and black. Fine. (25.00)

Low's name and 838 Broadway address are canceled in pencil and, to the right, is ink-stamped: "Removed to 853 Broadway, Domestic Building, Room 3." The new street address is in turn lightly lined through in pencil and impressed, at the top of the first and last page, is the ink stamp of "N. Y. Coin & Stamp Co., Room 5, 853 B'way, Cor. 14th St., N. Y., D. Proskey, Manager." An interesting early price list. Prices are given for Good and Very fine notes, excepting the 1861 Montgomerys. The highest price listed is $4.00 for a Very fine No. 5, P. No. (4), an 1861 Richmond $100 Hudson River R.R. and steamboat (green) note.

468 Massamora, Geo. W. DESCRIPTIVE AND CHRONOLOGICAL CATALOGUE OF CONFEDERATE CURRENCY. Baltimore, 1889. 24 pages. (bound with) Chase, P. H. BASIC CLASSIFICATION AND LISTING CONFEDERATE STATES OF AMERICA PAPER MONEY, 1861-1865. Bala-Cynwyd, 1936 & 1941. The main work and the Price List Supplement, 31, (1); (1), 32-38 pages. Later brown cloth, lettered in gilt. Fine. (75.00)

Ex John J. Ford, Jr. Library. Although a price list is appended, the Massamora catalogue has more than just a schedule for selling stock. There are corrections of errors found in the First and Third works, detailed descriptions, notes on counterfeits, and other useful information. Since the 1941 Chase supplement never here featured an interesting list stamped onto the first page. Since this supplement was printed, conditions have changed so drastically that a number of the prices herein are not representative of the present market.

575 Breck, Samuel. HISTORICAL SKETCH OF CONTINENTAL PAPER MONEY. Philadelphia: Reprinted by A. C. Kline, 1863. 33, (3) pages. Original printed tan paper covers a trifle discolored. Fine. (35.00)

Clain-Stefanelli 13292. Sigler 297. A prominent citizen of Philadelphia, Breck (1771-1862), was the author of many historical addresses and dissertations. This essay on the paper currency of the Revolution is considered his most important work. It appears to be the earliest American numismatic book ever reprinted. Originally issued in 1843 by John C. Clark, the work was republished by A. C. Kline, an important early American coin collector and dealer (see Attnelli page 60 and Joel Oros's 1997 The Curious Case of The Coin Collector's Kline). Referring to the original 1843 work in his preface, Kline states: "This pamphlet has now become of such rarity that its purchase is an utter impossibility, while at the same time an almost universal desire to obtain everything connected with the History of Continental Money, has caused considerable inquiry to be made for it."

576 Breen, Walter. "A COINER'S CAVIAR," WALTER BREEN'S ENCYCLOPEDIA OF UNITED STATES AND COLONIAL PROOF COINS 1722-1977. New York 1977. First Edition. 324 pages, illustrated throughout. Quarto. Original brown cloth, gilt, pictorial dust jacket. Very fine/near new. (50.00)

578 Evans, George G., Publisher. ILLUSTRATED HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES MINT WITH A COMPLETE DESCRIPTION OF AMERICAN COINAGE... Philadelphia, 1887. New Revised Edition, Edited by the Publisher. Fox, text illustrations, 24 halftone plates of coins. Original maroon cloth, gilt. Generally fine. (75.00)

Apparently rare. Though Clain-Stefanelli includes 1887 among a dozen yearly editions recorded, our records indicate that we have not handled another in at least the past two decades.

579 Frossard, Ed. MONOGRAPH OF UNITED STATES CENTS AND HALF CENTS ISSUED BETWEEN THE YEARS 1793 AND 1857: TO WHICH IS ADDED A TABLE OF THE PRINCIPAL COINS, TOKENS, JETONS, MEDALLETS, PATTERNS OF COINAGE AND WASHINGTON PIECES, GENERALLY CLASSIFIED UNDER THE HEAD OF COLONIAL COINS. A CONTRIBUTION TO THE NUMISMATIC HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES. Irvington: Published by the Author, 1879. 58 pages, 9 fine heliotype plates. Small quarto: 25.5 x 20.5 cm. Contemporary brown half morocco, gilt, binding a bit worn. Near fine. (200.00)

No. 187 of only 300 copies printed, signed Ed. F. Having sold George W. Merritt's fine collection of large cents and half cents earlier in the year, Frossard decided to capitalize on the research expended in its cataloguing by separately publishing this work. The first eight plates, in fact, depict Merritt's collection, the final plate being devoted to colonials. These plates, according to the preface, were "issued before a single description was attempted," leading one to believe that they were prepared to accompany the catalogue of the January 3rd, 1879 Merritt sale. All of the plates feature a copyright date of 1878. Frossard's is the first work to cover the entire series of large cents and half cents; as such it is deserving of landmark status. The ornate composition by W. T. R. Marvin, numismatic printer par excellence, and the handsome heliotype illustrations add to its desirability.

580 Johnson, James B. 1942 AUCTION RECORDS: U.S. COINS SINCE 1793. Cincinnati, 1942. First Edition. (6), 9-89, (1) pages. (also) Johnson, James B. 1943 AUCTION PRICES: UNITED STATES COINS. AMERICAN NUMISMATIC CORRESPONDENCE & EPHEMERA

"It is important even now that the type of publicity Kosoff can generate be avoided"

589 Crozier, Wesley A. TYPEWRITTEN LETTER TO JOHN J. PITTMAN, ON PRINTED STATIONERY, SIGNED IN INK, WITH A HANDWRITTEN POSTSCRIPT. Fair Haven, December 4, 1978. Single sheet. 28 x 21.5 cm. Fine. Accompanied by the original "Wesley A. Crozier Postal History" mailing envelope. (50.00)

An intriguing letter. Crozier writes: "I have been following your movements in the coin media. You seem to be as involved as ever, and maintaining your usual high profile. It has now been five years since our transaction regarding the Cortelyou coins, and this brings me to the principal purpose of this letter. The transaction was structured against your promise that everything would be handled in a discreet fashion. You are well aware of all the circumstances as I held nothing back from you. It is important even now that the type of publicity Kosoff can generate be avoided. I am reminded of his breach of our agreement on Nov. 3, 1976, when the story of the white metal trial striking appeared. I trust you will have no difficulty in keeping things under control, and I hear nothing from you I will feel confident that this is so. I trust you and Mrs. Pittman are both well, and wonder if you can still put away a 3 1/2 lb. lobster! P.S. Find some old covers (folded letters & envelopes w/postal markings) for me. I have a couple of sensational numismatic items for trading!" George Bruce Cortelyou (1862-1940), served as Secretary of the Treasury (1907-1909), during the devastating Panic of 1907. According to the researches of Roger W. Burdette, Cortelyou was the lucky recipient of one of three specimens struck on December 31, 1907, of the MCMVII Extremely High Relief August Saint-Gaudens double eagle. He was also involved in other 1907 Saint-Gaudens gold issues.
